

How do I order?

Email for information to us at perspective@metrocast.net

To order use the PDF order form on our websites home page. Be sure to include the following information:

Name of image
Size of image in inches
Specify Type of media: Print, Laminated and mounted on Gatorboard
Billing address with phone number and contact person.
Shipping address with phone number and contact person.

Once you email that information to us we will review the order and get you an estimate on shipping.

Do you sell framed and matted photos?

No, primarily due to the cost of shipping and handling, the cost would very expensive. Our preference is to ship the prints rolled in tubes. It has been our experience that a local framing shop is the most cost effective method to have images framed and matted. We strongly recommend that you consider cold laminated prints on gatorboard for medical facilities because they are washable.

Do you have a price list?

Please download an order form and price list by clicking; Order form and price list on our main page.

How do I pay, do you take credit cards?

Yes we can, we have a credit card terminal at our studio. When we ship your order, we will mail you an invoice separately. We ask for payment by check within 30 days of shipping. On our fax order form that you can fill in credit card information. We do not recommend emailing credit card information.

Do you require a pre payment or purchase order?

A pre payment percentage is required for large orders. A purchase order is requested.

What if we are not satisfied with the art?

We guarantee satisfaction. If you are not satisfied, you can ship that print back to us and there will be no charge. We do ask that you pay for the return shipping.

Can your images be used on backlit panels?

Yes, email us for more details.
